New to Subject Leadership Professional Development

The Kite Academy Trust is delighted to open invitations to colleagues to our New to Subject Leadership professional development sessions. The training is designed for those colleagues who are new to the subject leader role within your school or who are returning to the role and require a refresher or update.

This CPD event is hosted by Tammie Wisnia, Improvement Advisor at the Kite Academy Trust. Tammie is an experienced school leader who now uses her expertise to develop and support the leadership of colleagues in the teaching profession. In her role, she keeps abreast of current and up to date educational thinking and uses this to adapt her training accordingly. In addition to her role at Kite, Tammie is an Evidence Lead in Education (ELE) for Charles Dickens Research School and a Support Tutor for SSF SCITT.

The course aims are:

- For leaders to be supported in their new leadership role
- For leaders to have a clear understanding of their role
- For leaders to have effective impact on their school
- For leaders to collaborate enabling supportive, learning relationships with local leaders

The Professional development sessions will include:

3 x face-to-face professional development sessions covering topics such as how to be an effective subject leader, improving teaching and learning in your subject and leading and delivering change and improvement.
