

Legionella Awareness Training (Half Day)

Summary

An introduction to Legionnaires' disease and controlling legionella bacteria in building water systems. The course introduces the recommendations of the HSE Approved Code of Practice L8 and HSG274- Legionnaires' disease: Technical Guidance (2014) Part 2, including the Requirements of the Responsible persons for legionella control and ongoing maintenance and monitoring duties. If required the course can include more detailed information on Evaporative Cooling Towers as well as practical demonstration of duties such as hot and cold temperature monitoring.

Suitable For

Duty Holders, Responsible Persons, Property/ Building Managers, Facilities Staff, Water Systems Engineers, Maintenance Engineers, Plumbers

Number of Delegates

Maximum of 15 per course

Topics Covered

- What is Legionnaires' Disease
- What are Legionella
- Where are Legionella found
- HSE Film
- Legislative Requirements- ACoP L8
- Legionella Risk Assessment & Risk Systems
- Domestic Hot and Cold Water Systems
- Evaporative Cooling Towers (Optional)
- Case Study: Barrow-in-Furness
- Monitoring Logbooks & Systems of Control
- Monitoring Tasks & Frequencies
- Discussion / Q & A

Additional Information

All attendees will be provided with a legionella awareness-training certificate upon completion of the course. Healthy Buildings International Ltd are a Legionella Control Association (LCA) approved body.

